Summer Stars shine brightly in 'AristoCats' performances

Hawai'i Children's Theatre presented "AristoCats" last weekend at Kaua'i Community College Performing Arts Center. The Summer Stars program featured the younger children in six lively and hilarious performances. Tomorrow through Sunday, the older children will perform the Broadway musical "Into the Woods." "Into the Woods" explores a number of classic fairy tales. When a baker and his wife are cursed by the neighborhood witch, they embark on a quest for special objects required to break the spell. Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood and Rapunzel are among the notables the pair visit. There will be six performances over one weekend, starting tomorrow at 7 p.m. Tickets $10 in advance and $12 at the door.
